

HARMONY DAY

Collarenebri

7th April 2011

On Thursday, 7th April, 2011, Walgett Aboriginal Medical Service participated in Harmony Day held at the Collarenebri Central School.

Harmony Day is a day for all Australians to celebrate cultural diversity and spread the message that everyone belongs.

The goal was to support Year 5 and 6 students with an activity for Harmony Day.

HARMONY DAY

collarenebri

The Collarenebri Year 5 and 6 students performed a New Zealand Maori song.

The students will enter the song in the Walgett Aboriginal Medical Services 25 years Celebrations Talent Quest.

Also in attendance were:
Jamie Bellwood
 Murdi Paaki Drug & Alcohol Outreach Worker
Roslyn McGregor
 AEO Collarenebri Central School
 Various other Teachers and guests also attended the day.

WAMS Officers in attendance were:
Reg Rutene
 Murdi Paaki Drug & Alcohol Network Co-Ordinator
Ann Megalokonomos
 Public Health Worker
Patricia Murray
 Goonimoo Co-Ordinator

