Participants included Mission Australia, PCYC, Walgett Shire Council, Far West Academy of Sport, Little Athletics NSW, NSW Rugby League and Black Dog Institute.

Parents and Carers from Walgett and surrounding districts, including 80 children, attend the event.

All organisations were allocated a sports station and Creative Community Concepts assisted with guiding the children through a variety of sports. WAMS provided fruit & water for the event.

Black Dog Institute spoke about mental health awareness and Mission Australia provided healthy sandwiches.

Active Fest raises awareness of health, the importance of being active, whilst promoting fun and laughter.
